The Developer License is a per-seat license meaning that where Licensee enables two or more of its Developers (that is, employees, contractors, registered students, research assistants or the like, including itself, performing development work) to make use of the rights granted hereby it should purchase the Developer License for each one of them.

reproduction, modification, distribution, display, sale, and lease, or authorize any third party to do so, the Software or Derivative Works, either as a standalone or an integrated product, whether for internal or external, be it commercial or otherwise, purposes. The Developer License explicitly prohibits any use or exploitation of the Software or Derivative Works within the cloud computing service (Software-as-a-Service, or the like) or OEM (including, on-premises installation and running of the Software with Licensee's clients) distribution models.

- 3.3. 4. Order, Delivery, and Enjoyment of Software

- 4.1. The subject matter of the License is digital content meaning data produced and supplied in digital form. In the ordering process Licensee (i) may choose the type of License, (ii) will be informed of the License Fees and other data concerning the License, and (iii) may place the order (If placing the order implies an obligation to pay, such obligation is to be expressly acknowledged) – the order will be binding on Licensee when effectively placed.
- 4.2. License Confirmation. Before Licensee is bound by the Agreement, Handsoncode or an Authorized Reseller may provide it with the information identifying, defining, or otherwise communicating the License, characteristics of the Software (and other products and services involved), License Fees (and other fees – as a rule, total price inclusive of taxes), right of withdrawal, if applicable, and such other rights and obligations as are mandatory under the applicable law. If Licensee enjoys the status and rights of a consumer under EU law (“consumer” is defined to mean any natural person who, in the Agreement is acting for purposes which are outside his trade, business, craft or profession) the information will be provided on a durable medium for such Licensee to be able to store it in a way accessible for future reference for a period of time adequate for purposes of the information and to allow the unchanged reproduction of the information stored.
- 4.3. Delivery of Software. Handsoncode or an Authorized Reseller will provide the Software, and – if applicable – a Software License Key, to Licensee through a reasonable system of electronic download within 7 days of payment of the License Fee (“Delivery Date”). Payment terms for License Fees payable to an Authorized Reseller are as specified by a given Authorized Reseller. Failure to pay full amount when due gives Handsoncode or an Authorized Reseller the right to withhold delivery of the Software and cancel the License.

5.2. Gross-up Clause. All payments to be made under the Agreement shall be made in cleared funds, without any deduction or set-off and free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any taxes, levies, imports, duties, charges, fees and withholdings of any nature now or hereafter imposed by any governmental, fiscal or other authority save as required by law. If Licensee is compelled to make any such deduction, it may have to pay to Handsoncode or an Authorized Reseller such additional amounts as are necessary to ensure receipt by them of the full amount which Handsoncode or an Authorized Reseller would have received but for the deduction. Upon request of Licensee Handsoncode or an Authorized Reseller will provide Licensee with a proper certificate of residence (for tax relief purposes, or the like).

6. Prohibited Uses; Indemnification

- 7.1. Licensee may terminate the Agreement for convenience, upon 30 days' notice.
- 7.2. Handsoncode may terminate the Agreement upon Licensee's failure to comply with its terms and conditions.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Licensee Product(s) sold, leased or provided by Licensee as agreed under the Agreement, to any End-User, will not be affected by the termination, and the End-User may continue to use Licensee Product(s) with the Software included. However, such End-User must comply with these Terms.

11. Miscellaneous

- 11.1. Force Majeure. No delay, failure, or default, other than a failure to pay fees when due, will constitute a breach of the Agreement to the extent caused by acts of war, terrorism, hurricanes, earthquakes, other acts of God or of nature, strikes or other labor disputes, riots or other acts of civil disorder, embargoes, or other causes beyond the affected Party's reasonable control.

Only where a given dispute does not lend itself to, or the Parties have failed to reach within 30 days of good faith conciliation, any amicable resolution, may such a dispute be then heard, settled and resolved, exclusively, by courts having jurisdiction over the registered office of Handsoncode. Right of withdrawal. You have the right to withdraw from the Agreement within 14 days without giving any reason.
